OnTheMarket named in The Sunday Times Best Places to Work 2023

OnTheMarket Group (“OnTheMarket” or “The Group”) is the sole property portal named amongst the UK’s best employers in The Sunday Times Best Places to Work 2023 initiative.

The nationwide workplace survey honours and celebrates Britain’s top employers and acknowledges the best workplaces for women, LGBTQIA+ community, disabled employees, ethnic minorities, younger and older workers, and wellbeing.

The awards recognise and celebrate organisations with the highest employee engagement and workplace happiness, which in turn helps organisations attract, retain, and recruit employees.

Appearing on the list for the first time, the portal was included in the Medium Sized Organisations category (50–249 employees), after being evaluated across the six key drivers of employee engagement and workplace happiness.

OnTheMarket’s Overall Engagement score was 92%, 17% above the industry average, with 90% expressing Confidence in Management. The portal achieved notable scores in Reward & Recognition (92%), Empowerment (93%), and Wellbeing (92%) and Job Satisfaction (93%).

Jason Tebb, Chief Executive Officer of OnTheMarket, comments: “We are delighted to have been recognised alongside other prestigious companies on the Sunday Times Best Places to Work List. At OnTheMarket we take immense pride in our workforce and believe that by empowering our skilled and talented professionals the business will be stronger as a result, providing a better quality service to our customers.”

Ends.
