

Serious about selling or letting your property?

It makes sense to choose an OnTheMarket agent.

Why is OnTheMarket the place for your property?

We're the UK's fastest growing property search website, trusted by thousands of estate agents to match active property seekers with homes to sell or let like yours. Here are five of the many reasons why OnTheMarket is the best place for your property.

Millions of unique visitors search at OnTheMarket every month, ensuring your property gets the visibility it deserves

Thousands of new properties 24 hours or more before Rightmove or Zoopla, targeting serious property seekers at the start of their search*

Largest

marketing spend of any UK property search website this year, to attract more visitors to view your property

Zero

third-party adverts on our site, unlike other portals, making sure your property is centre of attention without any distractions

2.3 billion

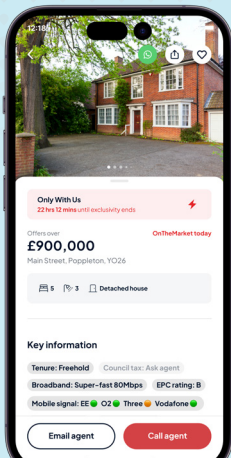

instant property alert emails sent in 2023, connecting active home movers with the agent selling your home

It makes sense to choose an agent that's Fastest growing property search website takes data from Google Analytics and Similarweb for competitor traffic. Marketing budget forecasted based on 2023 sector spend.

*See www.onthemarket.com/only-with-us/. Agents specify exclusivity and are committed to accuracy under terms of use.

Download the new OnTheMarket app

Try out Streams, a new way to view properties.

Search for your perfect home with voice AI.

Undecided on where you want to move? Search up to three locations and receive one set of results.

